PUBLISHER'S NOTE

With this, is being published the third and last volume of Principal Waman Shivaram Apte's Sanskrit-English Dictionary-Revised and enlarged-edited by Dr P K Gode, Curator, Bhandarkar Research Institute, and Shri C G Karve, Lexicographer, with the assistance and collaboration of other scholars. For the co-operation given by other scholars, the editors have already offered their thanks in which I join whole-heartedly.

Though not versed in Sanskrit, still I desire keenly to study the language even at the age of 58, out of a deep-rooted liking, although it has not been possible for me to do so so far due to my business activities. In early boyhood my elder brother taught me some Sanskrit verses. Due to his premature death, not only the further studies in Sanskrit, but all my school-education came to an abrupt end. But the few verses I had studied then, kept me attracted to the everlasting charm and glory of the language, and on account of that attraction I was tempted to undertake the publication of this Dictionary, involving sustained labour, strenuous scholarly work and a heavy financial burden.

In life I advocate the Joint Family System and admire Co-operation in work, without personal pride. I may record here with gratification that none of those concerned with the bringing out of this Edition, acted in a mercenary manner. All of us worked with great zeal for a common purpose, as members of one family in complete harmony.

It would be a futile attempt to describe and I find no adequate words to describe the co-operation I received from the Editors - Dr P. K. Gode and Shri C G Karve. With a sense of appreciation of the financial needs for such a gigantic scheme, many persons have kept amounts in deposit with me and with their timely material co-operation, I could provide for the necessary funds.

The owners of the Pratibha Printing Press, Messrs Joshi and Lokhande, their assistants, Madhu and Dinkar Lokhande, manager Shri Kale, Head compositors Shri Omale, Vaze, Purohit and Shankarrao Acharya spared no pains and gave no room for complaint, while the work was through the Press for an inordinately long period.

The most arduous job of reading and correcting the proofs was very efficiently carried out, as would be evident from the work, by (1) Shri Mahajan, Proprietor, Jai Hind Press, (2) Prof R N Gadre, M A, LL B, (3) Shri G K Deshmukh, M A, LL B, B T, (4) Shri M P Apte B A, (5) Shri G R Matapurkar, B A, (6) My nephew Shri G K Ketkar, B Sc, Kāvya-tīrtha and (7) Shri Narayan Shastri Abhyankar who worked tirelessly out of their devotion to the Sanskrit language.

From the start to the finish, every one concerned acted with a spirit of co-operation for the achievement of this common purpose. Not only this but my colleagues in other activities of the Prasad Prakashan like Prin S V Dandekar, Shri S A Joglekar and Shri P M Shintre were very helpful to me in the completion of this work.

I am a staunch believer and to me the success in the undertaking is a gift from God. With His grace, I hope to be able to undertake many more such publications in future on behalf of the Prasad Prakashan.

P R E F A C E

1 We feel a great relief and satisfaction at the completion of the enormous task, undertaken by us some six years ago, of bringing out the revised edition of Prin Apte's Sanskrit-English Dictionary. The urgent necessity of revising this Dictionary has been mentioned in the Preface to the first volume of the edition. We indicate below only the procedure followed by us in bringing out this edition.

2 When the Prasad Prakashan management finally decided to undertake the publication of the Revised and Enlarged Edition of Prin Apte's Sanskrit-English Dictionary, we were entrusted with the work of editing it, at the end of the year 1952. Accordingly, we issued the following appeal and sent it to some fifty renowned scholars—

“Dear Sir,

The Prasad Prakashan Samstha of Poona has undertaken the publication of a revised edition of Prin V S Apte's Sanskrit-English Dictionary, which is now out of print. The Publishers have entrusted to us the editing of this publication. We expect to complete the press-copy of this work in about six months.

As the Deccan College Research Institute has already been engaged in the stupendous work of preparing a Sanskrit Dictionary on historical principles, which will take many years for its completion, we have confined our revision plan to the inclusion of some new words and some new meanings of words, not recorded in Prin Apte's edition. Our object in bringing out the revised edition of the Dictionary is to cater mainly to the needs of the school and college students.

With a view to facilitating our work we are approaching many Sanskrit scholars to provide us with lists of new Sanskrit words which they may have come across during the course of their study. We want in particular new words which are not already recorded by Prin Apte in his edition, as also new meanings of old words in Prin Apte's dictionary.

We have now to request you earnestly to co-operate with us in the way indicated above and let us know very early the names of the books from which you can supply us new words or new meanings of words, for being added to the proposed revised edition. On getting these names we shall be in a position to draw up a consolidated list of works from which new matter can be added to the Dictionary. The names of works from which you are to supply us new matter will be finally communicated to you to enable you to start your work of preparing the required list. This arrangement will prevent duplication of work.

The publishers are willing to pay some honorarium to each scholar, collaborating with us in the above work, as a token of their gratitude.

As the work of preparing the press copy of the Dictionary has to be completed within six months, we require the lists of new words etc. from our collaborators on or before 1st April 1953.

We shall feel much obliged if you kindly express your willingness to collaborate with us to proceed further in this matter.

Thanking you in anticipation,

Yours Sincerely

P. K. Gode

C. G. Karve”

We are glad to note that there was a satisfactory response to this appeal from some scholars. Although a few of them could not fulfil their assurance given to us willingly, on account of their unforeseen difficulties, more than a dozen scholars promptly sent their quota as agreed to.

Besides the above collaborators, Dr K C Chatterji (Calcutta), Prof C H Chakravarti (Calcutta), Prof Bhabatosh Bhattacharya (Bhatpara), Prof K V Abhyankar and Prof M D Sathe of Poona, and many others have made useful suggestions for this work and helped us in many other ways. We are really very grateful to all these friends.

3 We have to do here the painful duty of recording the sad demise of our learned friend Prof D C. Bhattacharya (Calcutta). He supplied to us more than one thousand words from the sources noted above and we are very sorry that he passed away before seeing the second volume out.

4 For reference purposes, we were in need of almost all works on Sanskrit literature made use of by Prin Apte, and many other works for use in connection with the additions made by us to the original edition. We have to express our heart-felt thanks to the following gentlemen for lending books from their libraries

- (1) Shri S A Joglekar, Advocate, Poona
- (2) Shri D S Joglekar, Secretary, Saraswati Mandir Society, Poona
- (3) Dr M P Joshi, Medical Practitioner, Poona

- (8) Prof N. A. Gore, Librarian, Asiatic Society, Bombay
- (9) Dr P K Gode, Curator, Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute, Poona
- (10) Shri O G. Karve, Poona.

5 It is our very pleasant duty to acknowledge the help of Dictionaries of this type, published previously and especially of the following works—

As Prin Apte had made ample use of the Sanskrit-English Dictionary of Professor Monier Williams and had gratefully acknowledged its debt in the Preface (given fully in the first volume of this edition), we also are duty-bound to do the same for the same reason. We have frequently adopted additional shades of classical meanings and compound words from Prof M Williams' new edition of 1951.

The गीर्वाणलघुकोश (Sanskrit-Marathi Dictionary) of the late Janardan Vinayak Oka, published in 1911, gives sources of ample new quotations from texts like Upanishads, Rāmāyaṇa, Mahābhārata, Bhāgavata, Sukranīti, Stotras &c, from which we could happily and easily give innumerable quotations. Botanical terms and their Marathi equivalents from this lexicon have enriched our edition to some extent.

From the list of abbreviations given in the first and the last volume, it may be seen that quite new books like Vocabularies of Saubhari and Rāghava, शिवभारत, पणालपर्वतप्रहणख्यान, विश्वगुणादर्शचम्पू, शाहेन्द्रविलास, शालिहोत्र, &c have been used for selecting words.

6 We are also very grateful to the authorities of the Union High School, Bombay, for giving every kind of facility to Shri D G Padhye, the Sanskrit Teacher of the school and for allowing him to make a free use of the school library, for our editorial work.

Prof H D Velankar, Joint Director of the Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, Bombay, allowed us to use his book 'Jayadāman', a classified list of Sanskrit metres for our Appendix A. For the Appendixes B and C we have made ample use of 'the History of Sanskrit Literature' (Vol I) of De and Dasgupta, and the Geographical Dictionary of Nundolal Dey, respectively. We have to express our indebtedness to all these authors.

7 When the preliminary arrangements for the printing of this edition were complete and the editorial work on the original manuscript of Prin Apte's Dictionary had advanced, the management of the Prasad Prakashan requested Dr Harekrushna Mahtab, the then Governor of Bombay, to visit our Dictionary Department and formally give his blessings to the printing of this edition. The Governor was very kind to do so on the 27th December 1955, when the first printed sample form was kept ready. This sample form was then despatched to some scholars for inspection and suggestions and we are glad to note that we received many valuable suggestions and remarks from them.

8 In such lexicographic printing, proof-correction plays an important part. Reference works like scholar dictionaries should have no faults of any kind. Hence expert proof-correctors were sought after by us, as there are very few persons well-trained in this job. But we were fortunate enough to get for this work even Sanskrit scholars like Prof K V Abhyankar and Prof M D Sathe for the first volume and Prof R N Gadre, Shri G K Deshmukh (ex-superintendent, Phaltan High School) and Shri M P Apte, a retired Government officer, for the rest. Shri Mahajan, a press-owner having insight in the printing line had for sometime helped us in proof-correcting, but owing to his sudden and grave illness we had to lose his willing cooperation. However, in spite of all such possible care, some mistakes have crept in for which the editors are very sorry.

9 Even though the press-matter was ready, its printing took a long time and the first volume covering 631 pages was not out till the beginning of August 1957. The 9th of August was the 65th anniversary day of Prin V S. Apte and on this memorable date, Dr R P Paranjapye, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Poona and himself a student of Prin Apte in the Fergusson College, announced the publication of this volume at a ceremonial meeting, held for this purpose. The second volume (up to page 1296) was formally published on the 29th June 1958, when Dr S M Katre, Director and Editor, Sanskrit Dictionary Department, Deccan College, Poona, kindly presided over the function. The third and the last volume took about 10 months thereafter, as it incorporated some Appendixes covering over hundred pages.

10 We feel satisfaction at some appreciative remarks on the volumes so far out, from savants in India and abroad, a few of which are given below

(1) Dr Imanüel Olsvanger of Jerusalem—

“ It is a splendid publication indeed, and I can see from a few words which I looked up, how much scholarly skill has been applied to this dictionary, far exceeding the original production of the late Apte ”

(2) Prof Bhabatosh Bhattacharya (Bhatpara) —

“ Though Prin Apte completed in the short span of his life, the preparation and publication of this and other works, yet he is fortunate enough to leave behind him such a devoted and persevering group of scholars as Dr Gode and Shri Karve, who have not only perpetuated his name but also added lustre to its glory by making this lexicon upto-date and more useful to Sanskrit scholars all over the world ”

(3) Dr V S Agravala of the Banaras University—

“ It is a magnificent production not only resuscitating Apte's Magnum Opus, but also recording through words, the progress of Sanskrit studies during this long interval ”

Only after the publication of this last volume, scholars can form a just opinion about this revised edition. We have done our duty and it is now left to them to accept it in whatever manner it appeals to them.

11 The Honourable Chief Ministers of Bombay State — Shri Morarji Desai and his present successor, Shri Yeshwantrao Chavan — and the then Director of Education — Shri S S Bhandarkar had been very kind to visit our Dictionary Department at our request and the Government of Bombay have been pleased to accord a grant of Rs 5000 towards the publication of this edition. So also the Universities of Poona and Banaras were pleased to sanction publication-grants of Rs. 2000 and Rs 1000 respectively. Some other Universities expressed their inability to help the work but showed their willingness to buy a few copies afterwards. We are very grateful to all these great friends and institutions.

12 We cannot close this Preface without expressing our gratefulness to all the members of our Assisting Board of Editors for their willing and enthusiastic co-operation in this work.

13 In conclusion, we have to record here our great appreciation of the spirit of public service displayed by our publisher, Shri Y G Joshi, in shouldering the entire financial burden of organising, preparing and publishing this edition, in spite of the risk involved in this work. We are personally grateful to him for all the courtesy and kindness showed to us throughout our protracted labour of six years on this edition.

P. K Gode,
C. G. Karve.

Rāma killed them all with perfect ease, and received from the sage several miraculous missiles as a reward. He then accompanied Viśvāmītra to the capital of Janaka where he married Sītā having performed the wonderful feat of bending Siva's bow, and then returned to Ayodhyā. Daśaratha, seeing that Rāma was growing fitter and fitter to rule the kingdom, resolved to install him as heir-apparent. But, on the eve of the day of coronation, his favourite wife Kaikeyī, at the instigation of her wicked nurse Mantharā, asked him to fulfil the two boons he had formerly promised to her, by one of which she demanded the exile of Rāma for fourteen years and by the other the installation of her own son Bharata as Yuvarāja. The king was terribly shocked, and tried his best to dissuade her from her wicked demands, but was at last obliged to yield. The dutiful son immediately prepared to go into exile accompanied by his beautiful young wife Sītā and his devoted brother Lakṣmana. The period of his exile was eventful, and the two brothers killed several powerful demons and at last roused the jealousy of Rāvaṇa himself. The wicked demon resolved to try Rāma by carrying off his beautiful wife for whom he had conceived an ardent passion, and accomplished his purpose being assisted by Mārīcā. After several fruitless inquiries as to her whereabouts, Hanumat ascertained that she was in Lankā and persuaded Rāma to invade the island and kill the ravisher. The monkeys built a bridge across the ocean over which Rāma with his numerous troops passed, conquered Lankā, and killed Rāvaṇa along with his whole host of demons. Rāma, attended by his wife and friends in battle, triumphantly returned to Ayodhyā where he was crowned king by Viśiṣṭha. He reigned long and righteously and was succeeded by his son Kuśa. Rāma is said to be the seventh incarnation of Viṣṇu, of Jayadeva.—वितरसि दिक्षु रणे विकृष्टिकमनीयं दशमुखमौलिबलिं रमणीयम् । केशव धृतरघुपतिरूपं जय जगदीश हरे Gīt 1.] -२ A kind of deer -३ N of Arana -४ A lover, of Śi 4 59 -५ A horse -६ Pleasure, joy -मम् 1 Darkness -२ Leprosy (कुष्ठम्) -३ A tamāla leaf -Comp -अनुजः N of a celebrated

वाल्मीकिः, -वाल्मीकः, -वाल्मीकिः [वल्मीके भवः अण् इञ् वा] N of a celebrated sage, and author of the Rāmāyana, कवीन्दुः नौमि वाल्मीकिं यस्य रामायणी कथाम् । चन्द्रिकामिव चिन्वन्ति चकोरा इव साधवः ॥ Udb. [He was a Brāhmaṇa by birth, but being abandoned by his parents in his childhood, he was found by some wild mountaineers who taught him the art of thieving. He soon became an adept in the art, and pursued his business of plundering and killing (where necessary) travellers for several years. One day he saw a great sage whom he asked on pain of death to deliver up his possessions. But the sage told him to go home and ask his wife and children if they were ready to become his partners in the innumerable iniquities that he had committed. He accordingly went home, but returned dismayed at their unwillingness. The sage then told him to repeat the word mara (which is Rāma inverted) and disappeared. The robber continued to repeat it for years together without moving from the place, so that his body was covered up with ant-hills. But the same sage reappeared and got him out, and as he issued from the 'valmika' he was called Valmiki, and became afterwards an eminent sage. One day while he was performing his ablutions, he saw one of a pair of Krauncha birds being killed by a fowler, at which he cursed the wretch in words which unconsciously took the form of a verse in the Anustubh metre. This was a new mode of composition, and at the command of the god Brahman he composed the first poem the Rāmāyana. When Sītā was abandoned by Rāma, he gave her shelter under his roof, and brought up her two sons. He afterwards restored them all to Rāma.]

 and son of Gādhi One day while out hunting, he went to the hermitage of the great sage Vasistha, and seeing there the cow of plenty, offered him untold treasures in exchange for it, but being refused he tried to take it by force A long contest thereupon ensued, in which king Viśvāmītra was signally defeated, and so great was his vexation, and withal so greatly was he impressed with the power inherent in Brāhmanism that he devoted himself to the most rigorous austerities till he successively got the titles Bajarsi, Risi, Maharsi, and Brahmarsi, but he was not contented till Vasistha himself called him by the name Brahmarsi, which, however, took place after several thousands of years. Viśvāmitra several times tried to excite Vasistha—for example by killing his one hundred sons—but the great sage was not in the least perturbed. His power, even before he finally became a Brahmarsi, was very great, as was seen in his transporting Trisanku to the skies, in saving Sunahśepa from the hands of Indra, in creating things after the style of Brahman &c &c. tinct parts, the Mantra or Samhitā and Brāh-

Hindus the Vedas are a-pauruseya, 'not human compo-

'Śruti': e 'what is heard or revealed', as distinguished from 'Smṛiti', i e 'what is remembered or is

Resolved to carry out her purpose, she created, by means of her superhuman power, a woman exactly like herself—who was, as it were, her own shadow (and was therefore called Ohhāyā),—and putting her in her own place, went away without the knowledge of the sun. Ohhāyā bore to the sun three children (see छाया), and lived quite happily with him, so that when Saṃjñā returned, he would not admit her. Thus repudiated and disappointed, she assumed the form of a mare and roamed over the earth. The sun, however, in course of time, came to know the real state of things, and discovered that his wife had assumed the form of a mare. He accordingly assumed the form of a horse, and was united with his wife, who bore to him, two sons—the Aśvinīkumāras or Aśvins q v] -Comp. -अधिकारः a leading rule which gives a particular name to the rules falling under it, and which exercises influence over them -विपर्ययः loss of consciousness, रतिखेदसमुत्पन्ना निद्रा संज्ञाविपर्यय Ku 6 44 -विषयः an epithet, an attribute -सुतः an epithet of Saturn -सूत्रम् any Sūtra which teaches the meaning of a technical term

It regards the whole universe as a development of an inanimate principle called Prakṛti q v, while the Purusa is altogether passive and simply a looker-on. She was so lovely that all the suitors that came to woo her were repulsed by her superior lustre, and thus though she reached a marriageable age, she found no one ready to espouse her. At last her father asked her to go and find out a husband of her own choice. She did so, and having made her selection returned to her father, and told him that she had chosen Satyavat, son of Dyumatsena, King of Sālva, who being driven out from his kingdom was then leading a hermit's life along with his wife. When Nārada, who happened to be present there, heard this, he told her as well as Aśvapati that he was very sorry to hear of the choice she had made, for though Satyavat was in every way worthy of her, yet he was fated to die in a year from that date, and in choosing him, therefore, Sāvitri would be only choosing life-long widow-hood and misery. Her parents, therefore, naturally tried to dissuade her mind, but the high-souled maiden told them that her choice was unalterably fixed. Accordingly the marriage took place in due time, and Sāvitri laid aside her jewels and rich apparel, and putting on the coarse garments of hermits, spent her time in serving her old father and mother-in-law. Still, though outwardly happy, she could not forget the words of Nārada, and as she counted, the days seemed to fly swiftly like moments, and the fated time, when her husband was to die, drew near. 'I have yet three days' thought she, 'and for these three days I shall observe a rigid fast'. She maintained her vow, and on the fourth day, when Satyavat was about to go to the woods to bring sacrificial fuel, she accompanied him. After having collected some fuel, Satyavat, being fatigued, sat down, and reposing his head on the bosom of Sāvitri fell asleep. Just then Yama came down, snatched off his soul, and proceeded towards the south. Sāvitri saw this and followed the god who told her to return as her husband's term of life was over. But the faithful wife besought Yama in so pathetic a strain that he granted her boon after boon, except the life of her husband, until, being quite subdued by her devotion to her husband and the force of her eloquent appeal, the god relented and restored even the spirit of Satyavat to her. Delighted she returned, and found her husband as if roused from a deep sleep, and informing him of all that had occurred, went to the hermitage of her father-in-law who soon reaped the fruits of the boons of Yama. Sāvitri is regarded as the beau idéal or highest pattern of conjugal fidelity, and a young married woman is usually blessed by elderly females with the words जन्मसावित्री भव, thus placing before her the example of Sāvitri for lifelong imitation.] -Comp -पतिः, -परिभ्रष्टः a man of any one of the first three castes not invested with the sacred thread at the proper time, of ब्राह्म्य, सावित्रीपतिता ब्राह्म्य ब्राह्म्यस्तोमादृते क्रतो Y 1 38, Ms 2 39, तान् सावित्रीपरिभ्रष्टान् ब्राह्म्यानि विनिर्दिशेत् Ms 10 20 -व्रतम् N of a particular fast kept by Hindu women on the last three days of the bright half of Jyestha to preserve them from widow-hood -सूत्रम् the sacred thread (यज्ञोपवीत)

हरिश्चन्द्रः N of a king of the solar dynasty [He was the son of Trisanku and was famous for his liberality, probity, and unflinching adherence to truth. On one occasion his family-priest Vasiṣṭha commended his qualities in the presence of Viśvāmitra, who refused to believe them. A quarrel thereupon ensued, and it was at last decided that Viśvāmitra should himself test the king. The sage accordingly subjected him to the most crucial test with a view to see if he could not be but once made to swerve from his plighted word. The king, however, stood the test with exemplary courage, adhering to his word though he had to forego the kingdom, to sell off his wife and son, and at last, even his own self to a low-caste man, and-as the last test, as it were, of his truthfulness and courage—to be even ready to put his own wife to death as a witch! Viśvāmitra thereupon acknowledged himself vanquished, and the worthy king was elevated along with his subjects to heaven.]

SANSKRIT PROSODY

Introduction

The earliest and most important work in Sanskrit prosody is the Pingala chhandas śāstra, attributed to the sage Pingala, which consists of Sutras distributed over eight books. The Agni Purāṇa also gives a complete system of prosody founded apparently on Pingala's. Several other original treatises have likewise been composed by various authors, such as the Śrutabodha, Vāṇibhūṣana, Vṛtta-darpaṇa, Vṛtta-ratnākara, Vṛtta-kaumudī, Chhandomañjarī &c. In the following pages the Chhandomañjarī and Vṛtta-ratnākara have been chiefly drawn upon, Vedic as well as Prākṛita metres being ignored in this Appendix.

Sanskrit composition may be in the form of गद्य 'prose' or पद्य 'verse' or poetry expressed in the form of stanzas.

A stanza or padya is a combination of four padas or quarters, which are regulated either by the number of syllables (अक्षर), or by the number of syllabic instants (मात्रा).

A पद्य is a वृत्त or जाति.

A वृत्त is a stanza the metre of which is regulated by the number and position of syllables in each Pāda or quarter. A जाति is a stanza the metre of which is regulated by the number of syllabic instants in each quarter.

Vṛttas are divided into three classes — समवृत्त in which the Pādas or quarters composing the stanza are all similar, अर्धसमवृत्त in which the alternate quarters are similar, and विषमवृत्त in which the quarters are all dissimilar.

A syllable is as much of a word as can be pronounced at once, that is, a vowel with or without one or more consonants.

A syllable is लघु 'short' or गुरु 'long', according as its vowel is 'short' or 'long'. The vowels अ, इ, उ, ऋ, and ए are short, and आ, ई, ऊ, ऋ, ए, ऐ, ओ, and औ are long. But a short vowel becomes long in prosody when it is followed by an Anusvara or Visarga, or by a conjunct consonant, as the vowel अ in गन्ध.

or ग (The consonants प्र & ह, as also ब्र, & क, are said to be exceptions, before which the vowel may be short by a sort of poetical licence, e.g. in Ku 7 11 or Si 10 60, where, however, emendations have been proposed by critics to render the metre conformable to the general laws of prosody.) So also the last syllable of a pāda is either long or short, according to the exigence of the metre, whatever be its natural length.

सानुस्वारश्च दीर्घश्च विसर्गो च गुरुर्भवेत् ।

वर्णं सयोगपूर्वश्च तथा पादान्तगोऽपि वा ॥

In metres regulated by the number of syllabic instants, one instant or Mātrā is allotted to a short vowel, and two to a long one.

For the purpose of scanning metres regulated by the number of syllables, writers on prosody have devised eight 'Ganas' or syllabic feet, each consisting of three syllables, and distinguished from one another by particular syllables being short or long. They are given in the following verse —

मङ्गिगुरुलघुलघुलघु नकारो

भादिगुरु पुनरादिलघुर्ध्वः ।

जो गुरुमध्यगतो रलमध्य

सोऽन्तगुरु कथितोऽन्तलघुस्तः ॥

आदिमध्यावसानेषु यरता यान्ति लघवम् ।

भजसा गौरवं यान्ति मनौ तु गुरुलघवम् ॥

Expressed in symbols (the symbol ∪ denoting a short syllable, and — a long one), the different Ganas may be represented as follows —

य ∪ — — (Bacchius)

र — ∪ — (Amphimacer)

त — — ∪ (Anti-bacchius)

भ — ∪ ∪ (Dactylus)

ज ∪ — ∪ (Amphibrachys)

स ∪ ∪ — (Anapaestus)

म — — — (Molossus)

न ∪ ∪ ∪ (Tribrachys)

Similarly ल (∪) is used to denote a short syllable, and ग (—) a long one.

N B — Sanskrit prosodists classify Vrittās according to the number of syllables contained in each quarter. Thus they enumerate twenty-six classes of 'Sama-vrittās', as the number of syllables in each quarter of a regular metre may vary from one to twenty-six. Each of these classes comprehends a great number of possible metres according to the different modes in which long and short syllables may be distributed. For example, in the class where each quarter contains six syllables, each of the six syllables may be either short or long, and thus the number of possible combinations is $2 \times 2 \times 2 \times 2 \times 2 \times 2$ or $2^6 = 64$, though not even half a dozen are in general use, so in the case of the twenty-six syllabled class, the possible varieties are 2^{26} or 87, 108, 864! But if we consider the cases where the alternate quarters are similar or all dissimilar, the variety of possible metres is almost infinite. Pingala, as also the Lilāvati and the last chapter of Vṛttaratnākara, give directions for computing the number of possible varieties and for finding their places, or that of any single one, in a regular enumeration of them. The different varieties, however, which have been used by poets are few when compared with the vast multitude of possible metres. But even these are too many to be dealt with in an Appendix like this, and we shall, therefore, only give such kinds as are most frequently employed or require particular notice, in the following order —

Section A	समवृत्त
Section B	अर्धसमवृत्त
Section C	विषमवृत्त
Section D	जाति &c

Note—In the following definitions the letters representing the Ganas such as भ, म, स, &c as also ल, ग, will often be found to have dropped their vowels for the exigence of metre, e.g. मभ्न stands for म, र, भ, न, so म्त्तो, for म, त &c. The first line gives the Definition of a metre, the second, the Scheme in Ganas with the Yati or Cæsura—the pause that may be made in reciting a quarter or verse, and which is usually indicated by the words in the Definition standing in the Instrumental case—denoted in brackets by Arabic figures, and then comes the example, (many of these examples are drawn from the works of Māgha, Bhāṛavi, Kalidāsa, Dandin &c.).

SECTION D

जाति (Metres regulated by the number of syllabic instants)

(a) The most common variety of such metres is आर्या It is said to have nine sub-divisions —

पथ्या विपुला चपला मुखचपला जघनचपला च ।

(c) औपच्छन्दसिक

Def पर्यन्ते यौ तथैव शेषमौपच्छन्दसिकं सुधीभिस्तुम् ।

This is the same as वैतालीय except that at the end of each quarter there must be a रगण and यगण instead of रगण and ल, ग only, in other words, it is the same as वैतालीय with only a long syllable added at the end of each quarter

Ex चपुषा परमेण भूधराणामथ सभाव्यपराक्रम विभेदे ।
मृगमाशु विलोक्याचकार स्थिरदध्रोऽग्रमुख महेन्द्रसूनु ॥
Kī 13 1

So in the next 52 verses of the same canto See Śi 20 also

It will be noticed that वियोगिनी or सुन्दरी and अपरवक्त्र are only particular cases of वैतालीय, and पुष्पिताम्रा and मालभारिणी, of औपच्छन्दसिक. Prosodists treat both these classes of metres in the Gana scheme as well as in the Mātrā scheme, hence they have been noticed here as well as in Section C

(d) मात्रासमक

The metre called मात्रासमक consists of four quarters each of which contains 16 syllabic instants. The most general variety is that in which the ninth syllabic instant is composed of a short syllable, and the last is a long syllable. It is defined as मात्रासमक नवमो लगान्त्य ।

But there are several varieties of this metre arising from particular syllabic instants being short or long. For example, if the 9th and 12th moments are formed by short syllables, and the 15th and 16th by a long one, and the rest are optional, it is called चानवासिका. If the 5th, 8th, and 9th are formed by short syllables and the 15th and 16th by a long one, it is called चित्रा. If the 5th and 8th are short, as also the 9th and 10th and 15th and 16th are long, it is called उपचित्रा. And if the 5th, 8th, and 12th are short, 15th and 16th long, and the rest indeterminate, it is called विश्लोक. Sometimes two or more of these varieties are combined in the same stanza, and in that case the measure is called पादाकुलक, in which there is no other restriction than that each quarter should have sixteen syllabic instants

The classification of metres as arranged by Prof H D Velankar, M A, in the Jayadāman is reproduced herewith for ready reference. An effort has been made to give Sanskrit definitions in the same metre wherever they are available. The number of letters varies from one letter to 45 letters in a pāda. The main section is given as a Heading with a figure on the right, which represents the number of varieties. The Ganas of the metres are arranged alphabetically, followed by the यति and the definitions and the names of the metres given in the different works. The readers are requested to make use of the symbols either ancient or modern, given at the top of this section.

The metres listed are collected from the following 11 old and important treatises on Sanskrit metres, arranged in an approximate chronological order —

- 1 Ohhandassāstra of Pingala (P) published in the Kāvya-mālā Series No 91 (3rd edition), Bombay, 1938
- 2 Nāṭyaśāstra of Bharata (Bh) published in the Kāśī Sanskrit Series No 60, Benares, 1929
- 3 Jayadevachhandas of Jayadeva (Jd) published in Jayadāman
- 4 Vṛttajātasamuchchaya of Vīrahanka (Vjs) published in the Journal BBRAS, 1929 and 1931.

5 Ratnamañjūṣā of an unknown Digambara Jain author (Rm) published by the Bharatiya Jñāna-Pīṭha, Durgākunda, Benares.

6 Svāyambhūchhandas of Svāyambhū (Sb) published in the Journal BBRAS, 1935

7 Vṛttaratnākara of Kedāra (Vr) critically edited in Jayadāman

8 Ohhandonusāsana of Jayakīrti (Jk) published also in Jayadāman

9 Ohhandonusāsana of Hemchandra (H) with brief footnotes (Ho) both published in the Jayadāman

10 Prākṛita Pangala (Pp) published in the Bibliotheca Indica, Calcutta, 1902

11 Jānāśrayi (Js) published in the Trivendrum Sanskrit series

A few additional metres which are not given in these older works are added in this list (the choice being purely subjective) from the following five works which, with the exception of the first, are comparatively modern

1 Utpala's commentary on Varāhamihira's Brihatsamhitā ch 103, quoted by verses (Utpala, V), published in the Vīṣṇanagaram Sanskrit series Vol X Benares 1895 onwards

2 Kavīdarpana of an unknown author who knows Hemachandra (Kd), published in the Annals BORI 1935-36

3 Ohhandomañjarī of Gangādasa (Chm) published in the Kāśī Sanskrit Series No 55, 1927

4 Mandāramarandachampū (Mm) published in the Kāvya-mālā Series, No 52, Bombay, 1895

5 Ohhandahkaustubha (Okau) from a manuscript No 894 of 1886-92 in the Bhāṇḍārkar Research Institute, Poona

6 Vāṇībhusana of Damodar published in the Kāvya-mālā Series No. 53 (VB)

Prākṛit metres defined in some of these works (Nos 4 6 9 10) are not included in the Jayadāman. A list and an index of Prakṛit metres collected from eight old works (including the abovementioned ones) prepared on a similar plan is published in the Journal BBRAS, 1946.

V मात्रावृत्तः - द्विपदी

(The चतुर्मात्रगण्य mentioned in this and the next sections must be kept separate by avoiding a long letter at their junction, which thus must not combine the last Mātrā of an earlier Chaturmātrā with the first Mātrā of a latter one)

आर्या First half has 7 Chaturmātrās and a long letter at the end, second has five Chaturmātrās followed by one short letter, one Chaturmātrā and one long letter. Thus the two halves have

30 and 27 Mātrās respectively. In each half the Chaturmātras in odd places must not be a जगण, the 6th Chaturmātra in the first half must be either जगण or सर्वलघु. In the latter case a new word must begin with the 2nd Laghu. But if the 7th Gana of the first half or the 5th Gana of the second half are of the सर्वलघु type, a new word must begin with the first Laghu (सप्त चतुर्मात्रगणा गुरुणार्योर्ध्वे न चायुजि ज । ज षष्ठो न्लगणो वा लघु-रपरे त्रिगणविषमाङ्गि ॥ पादौ प्रथमतृतीयौ द्वादशमात्रौ द्वितीय आर्याया । अष्टादशमात्रोऽसौ चतुर्थक पञ्चदश-मात्र ॥ Jk 5 2-3

पथ्या आर्या When a यति is clearly felt at the end of the third Chaturmātra, the Āryā is called Pathyā (आर्योऽजपादनिधने यस्या पथ्योभयत्र, पूर्वार्धे । यस्या तु पूर्वपथ्या परार्धयस्या च परपथ्या ॥ Jk 5 4)

विपुला आर्या When a यति is not clearly felt at the end of the 3rd Chaturmātra i.e. when only one letter of a word commenced in the third Chaturmātra belongs to either the 3rd or the 4th Chaturmātra, the Āryā is called विपुला (गणत्रय समुल्लङ्घ्य विषमश्चरणो यदि । द्वयोः शकल्योरेना विपुलार्या प्रचक्षते ॥ Mm 24 1 2)

चपला आर्या When the second and the fourth Chaturmātras of an Āryā are जगण both preceded and followed by a long letter, it is called चपला. When this happens only in the first half, it is मुखचपला, when only in the second, it is जघनचपला, (द्वितीयावोजयो-र्यत्र समयोरादिमौ तथा । जगणौ सप्रकाशेति चपला-र्येति सा मता ॥ चपलालक्षणं त्वाद्ये पथ्यालक्षणमन्तिमे । शकले स्यात् तर्हि मुखचपलेति प्रकीर्तिता ॥ पथ्यार्या-लक्षणं त्वाद्ये चपलालक्ष्म चान्तिमे । दले यदि स्याज्जघन-चपलेति प्रकीर्तिता ॥ Mm 24 3-8

There are about 80 varieties of the Āryā for which Piṅgala's Chandas-Sāstra may be referred to गीतिः When the second half of an Āryā wholly resembles the first, it is called गीति (आद्यर्धसमा गीति P 4 28)

उपगीतिः When the first half of an Āryā wholly resembles the second it is called उपगीति (उपगीति तु दलयो पथ्यार्योत्तरलक्ष्म चेत् Mm 24 11)

उद्गीतिः When the two halves of an Āryā exchange their places, it is called उद्गीति (उद्गीति स्यात् शकल्यो पथ्यार्याया व्यत्यये सति Mm 24 12)

आर्यागीतिः or स्कन्धकः When each half of an Āryā contains 8 Chaturmātras, it is called Āryā-gīti or स्कन्धक. According to some writers like Sulhana, it is an Āryā extended by two Mātrās in each half, so that its two halves have respectively 32 and 29 Mātrās in them (अर्धे वसुगण आर्यागीति P 4 31), of Mm 24 13-18

१७ वानवासिका The composition of the lines is as in No 13, but the 9th and 12th Mātrās must be represented by short letters (मात्राचतुष्टयात् जो वा नलौ वा द्वपञ्चिभ्यो मात्राभ्यो वानवासिका Mm 25 3 or मात्राभ्योऽष्टाभ्य एव यस्या जो नलौ वा पूर्ववदिह शेषम् । सविशेषाद् वानवासिकेति प्रवदन्ति विशेषवादिचस्ताम् ॥ Jk. 5. 29.)

१८ पादाकुलक A stanza of this metre consists of lines of any of the metres mentioned in Nos 13-17 above

(कैश्वन्मात्रासमकादीना पादैर्मिश्रैर्द्वित्रिचतुर्णाम् ।
पादाकुलकं कविपादैस्तद् व्यापादितं चतुष्पद्येवम् ॥
अप्रतिपादितपादैर्गन्तै प्रतिपादितपादैरपि सार्धम् ।
प्रोक्तं पिङ्गलपादाकुलकं तिलकं सुचतुष्पष्टिकलानाम् ॥
Jk 5 31-32)

१९ नटचरण A line consists of one Chaturmātra of any kind, followed by four long letters. The यति is after the 8th Mātrā (चो गीर्नटचरणं जै यति । H 3 71)

२० नृत्तगति A line contains two Chaturmātras, two long letters, one Chaturmātra and two long letters occurring in succession. The Chaturmātras may be of any kind (चौ गौ चो गौ नृत्तगतिः है । H 3 72)

२१ अचलधृति Each of the lines contains 16 short letters only. This is called गीत्यार्या by Pingala. This is generally regarded as a Mātrā Vṛtta and mentioned at the beginning of the Mātrāsamaka group. From another point of view it is a वर्णवृत्त and for reference of P 1 16 8 (उक्ताचलधृतिः प्राज्ञै द्व्यष्टाभिर्लघुभिर्वृता । Mm 25 1)

२२ पद्धति In each of its four lines, we have 4 Chaturmātras, those in the odd places must not be जगणः while the last one must be a जगण or a सर्वलघु. This is really a favourite metre of the Apabhramśa poets, but now and then Jain poets composed Sanskrit stanzas in this metre (चीनौजे जो जो लीर्वन्तेऽनुप्रासे पद्धतिः । H 3 73)

२३ द्विपदी Each line has 6 Mātrās followed by 5 Chaturmātras with a long letter at the end. A Jagana or a सर्वलघु must be used for the 2nd and the 6th places, i.e. for the first and the 5th Chaturmātras. A जगण must not be used anywhere else. When a सर्वलघु is used as said above, the यति must occur after the first short letter, i.e. a new word must begin with the 2nd short letter. Jayakīrti 6 28 regards this and the next two as Sanskrit metres, but Hemachandra considers these as Prākṛit metres of H 4 64-67.

२४ अब्जनाल A line of this metre is obtained by adding a long letter at the end of a line of a द्विपदी, (Jk 6 29). Hemachandra calls this आरनाल, (see H 4 66 and No 23 above).

२५ कामलेखा When the penultimate short letter in the lines of a द्विपदी (No 23) is dropped, we get a line of Kāmalekhā (षष्ठगणान्तलघुविहीना चेत् प्रथम द्विपदीकासौ । निष्ठित-शेषलक्षणयुता भवतीति हि कामलेखा Jk 6 29.)

२६ गुण A line of this metre contains 3 Chaturmātras of any kind except the जगण, but at the end of the 3rd line a couple of short letters must always be added

(तोयधिमाम्रागणत्रितयाद् गो यदि नात्र जकारगण ।
स्थायितृतीयपदाह्वयुगे सति सोऽयमभाणि गुणो गुणिभिः ॥
Jk 6 27)

२७ शिखा This is an Ardhasama-Chatuspadi obtained by doubling the metre of the same name under Ardhasama-Dwipadi Mātrā Vṛtta, (see V 9) (शिखा एकोनत्रिंशदेकत्रिंशदन्ते गु P 5 43)

वेङ्कटाध्वरिन् Author of the विश्वगुणादर्शचम्पू. He belonged to the first half of the 17th century. In his curious Champū two Gandharvas take a bride's eye view of various countries from their aerial car and expose the good and bad manners and customs of the time. The author has also many other works to his credit.

He is said to have been born in 788 A D and to have died in 820 A D at the early age of 32. Some scholars put him in the 6th or 7th century. Various Stotras such as आनन्दलहरी, मोहसुहर etc. are ascribed to him.

शारदातनय Author of the भावप्रकाश, a treatise on Rasas. He summarises views of all writers before and after the time of Bharata, but he has greatly developed the Śringāra Rasa on the lines suggested by Bhoja in his Śringāraprakāśa. He has also written a commentary on the काव्यप्रकाश. He seems to have flourished in the 12th century.

शिवदास Compiler of a version of the वेताल-पञ्च विंशति, which is a collection of 25 folk-tales. The earliest version is preserved in the बृहत्कथा. Jambhaladatta's version is almost entirely in prose. This work is also known in several forms in modern Indian languages. Śivadāsa may have flourished in the 14th or 15th century.

सूद्रक Author of the मृच्छकटिक, a very old Sanskrit drama, which might be a recast of the fragmentary चारुदत्त, ascribed to Bhāsa. This drama is a departure from the dramatisation of time-worn royal stories and legends to a more refreshing plot of everyday life, yet it is full of real poetry and sentiment found in master pieces of Kālidāsa and Bhavabhūti. Sūdraka may be assigned to the 1st century A. D.

श्रीहर्ष Author of the नैषधचरित, one of the five great Mahākāvya. The work is based on the well-known Mahābhārata story of Nala and Damayanti. Śrīharṣa was a logician and philosopher and hence the ideas from these sciences are often imported into his narrations and descriptions. It is a repository of traditional learning and should, therefore, be approached with the full equipment of such learning. The poet may have probably flourished in the second half of the 12th century.

सिलहणमित्र Author of the शान्तिशतक, a didactic poem in imitation of that of Bhartrihari. He was a poet from Kashmir and might have lived in the 12th century.

सुन्दरदेव Author of the सूक्तिसुन्दर, an anthology of verses of various poets in praise of the rulers of the 16th and 17th centuries (including Akbar and Shahjahan). Sunderadeva must have flourished in the 17th century.

सुबन्धु Author of the वासवदत्ता, a romantic story, different from the Vāsavadattā of the Udayana legend, and entirely invented and embellished by Subandhu. His sole aim in this work seems to illustrate the potency of expression of the Sanskrit language and his dexterity in framing discourse made of equivoques in every syllable. He was a contemporary of Bāna.

सोमदेव Compiler of the कथासरित्सागर, a condensed Sanskrit version of Guṇādhya's Paisāchī बृहत्कथा (see गुणाध्याय). This is a great ocean of stories of every conceivable description — tales of wondrous maidens and their fearless lovers, of kings, of state-craft and intrigue, of magic and spells, of murder and war, of devil and goblins, stories of animals in fact and fable, of beggars, ascetics, drunkards, gamblers, prostitutes and bawds. Somadeva was at the court of king Ananta of Kashmir (1029-1064) and for the amusement of the queen Sūryāvatī he compiled this huge work of 24000 verses.

सोमेश्वर Author of the कीर्तिकौमुदी. This work is the biography of Vastupāla, minister of the Vaghelā princes (Lavaṇa-prasāda and Vīra-dhavalā) and has a historical and poetical value. Somēśvara also wrote a romantic epic called the सुरयोत्सव. He lived in Gujarat between 1179 and 1262 A. D.

सौमरि Author of the एकार्थनाममाला and व्यञ्जरीनाममाला. The first work deals with एकार्थसः i. e. single consonants and the second with double consonants. Dr. E. D. Kulkarni, of the Deccan College is the editor of these Kōśas and he remarks in the preface that the author Saubhari must have flourished not later than Samvat 1639.

हनुमत् The mythical author of the well-known महानाटक or हनुमन्नाटक. It is a very extensive work on the entire Rāmāyaṇa story. Its two principal recensions, one of Damodara Miśra and the other of Madhusūdana, ascribe this Nāṭaka to the legendary servant of Rāma, Hanumat. Hence there is no historical evidence about the author.

हर्ष Author of the three dramas — नागानन्द, रत्नावली and प्रियदर्शिका. The story of the नागानन्द is drawn from the कथासरित्सागर, रत्नावली describes the secret love between king Udayana and Śāgarikā (an attendant of the queen), and the drama प्रियदर्शिका has been modelled on the मालविकाग्निमित्र. All these dramas though attributed to king Harṣa of Mālava are supposed to have been written by his court poets like Dhāvaka and Bāna.

हलायुध Author of the कविरहस्य, a sort of lexicon of roots (धातुपाठ) and at the same time a eulogy of the Rāstrakūṭa king, Kṛṣṇarāja III (940-956). His other work, the अभिधानरत्नमाला, is a vocabulary. He flourished in the 10th century.

The author of the धर्मविशेक seems to be different from this.

हेमचन्द्र A great lexicographer and a grammarian of the 11th and 12th centuries. He wrote many works embracing almost all fields of Sanskrit and Prakrit literature. The देशीनाममाला, अभिधानचिन्तामणि, अनेकार्थसंग्रह and निघण्टुशेष are his works on lexicography.

नृपनापितुत्रन्यायः The maxim of the king and barber's son It is used to denote a man's innate fondness for his own possessions, however ugly or despicable in the eyes of others (यत्रातिनिन्देऽपि स्वकीयेऽतिरम्यताबुद्धि-विवक्षी तत्रायमवतरतीति ।) It takes its origin from a story which states that a king on one occasion asked his barber to bring him the finest boy that he could see in his kingdom. The barber roamed for a long time over every part of the realm, but could discover no boy such as the king wanted. At last wearied and disappointed he returned home, and being charmed with the beauty of his own boy, who, to do him justice, was a personification of ugliness and deformity, went to the king and presented the boy to him. The king was at first very angry with the barber for having trifled with him, but on consideration excused him, as he ascribed the barber's preference of his own ugly boy to the dominant desire of human beings to consider their own possessions as supreme good of सर्व कान्तमालीय पश्यति । S 2
